Gala

SPONSORSHIP PACKAGE

FEBRUARY 28, 2020 | BEVERLY HILLS, CA
Message from the President & CEO
Brenda Victoria Castillo

It is with great honor that I lead The National Hispanic Media Coalition (NHMC) in 2020 and into the future. NHMC has a history to be proud of, and I welcome you to be part of this organization’s amazing future.

NHMC has its own identity, its own character, and her own voice. A voice that will continue to build programs in order to bridge Latinx Creators with the entertainment industry. A voice that will lead this organization in unity with both Latino and non-Latino organizations with a common goal.

I am a true believer that you do not have to be a person of color or from a marginalized community in order to believe that Representation truly does matter. So join me as we unite and celebrate our Latinx talent at NHMC’s Impact Awards Gala on February 28, 2020. The future is bright!

Our Mission

The National Hispanic Media Coalition (NHMC) advocates for the Latino media community, ensuring that we are fairly and consistently represented in news and entertainment and that our voices are heard over the airwaves and on the internet.
As president of ABC Entertainment, Karey Burke is responsible for all development, programming, casting, marketing, business affairs and scheduling operations for ABC prime time and late-night. One year into her tenure, Burke has developed some of the most buzzed-about live events of the year, including the Emmy® Award-winning “Live in Front of a Studio Audience: Norman Lear’s ‘All in the Family’ and ‘The Jeffersons,’” which has reached 24 million total viewers on broadcast alone, and “The Wonderful World of Disney presents The Little Mermaid Live!” – the most-watched live TV musical in four years.

Under Burke’s leadership, ABC has regained the title as the No. 1 network for summer for the first time in 24 years. Burke is also delivering on her promise of female-forward programming, with the new series “Stumptown,” “Emergence” and the No. 1 new comedy of the season, “mixed-ish.” Burke was also a driving force behind the recent launch of Walt Disney Television’s Executive Incubator Program, aimed at establishing a pipeline of next-generation network executives with a deliberate focus on developing underrepresented talent.

Jessica Herrera-Flanigan is Executive Vice President of Government and Corporate Affairs for Univision Communications Inc., the leading media company serving Hispanic America. In this role, she spearheads the Company’s government relations efforts, corporate social responsibility, social impact and empowerment initiatives including Univision Contigo as well as cross-platform diversity and community efforts. She oversees the Univision Washington, D.C. office, which focuses on developing strategies to address the key public policy issues that impact the Company and the U.S. Hispanic community.

Before joining Univision, Herrera-Flanigan served as a partner at Monument Policy Group, where she led the firm’s technology, media and crisis communications practices, as well as advised on such issues as national security, privacy, immigration, and sports. Previously, Herrera-Flanigan served as the Staff Director and General Counsel for the House Committee on Homeland Security, where she was the first Latina to lead a major Committee in the U.S. House of Representatives. Herrera-Flanigan received her Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School and her Bachelor of Arts in American Studies from Yale University.
