

“Hermanas”
By Abigail Saenz

Description:

Two sisters with opposing personalities are forced to address family issues while waiting for the results of a pregnancy test.

Characters:

Teresa

Late 20s - Textbook overfunctioner. After a lifetime of trying to live up to the expectations of being the perfect daughter/sister/wife, she’s finally letting loose. Maybe a little too loose.

Yazmin

Early 30s - Textbook under-functioner. Yazmin is brash and self-centered. She’s the black sheep of the family and she’s allergic to responsibility.

Setting:

Bathroom at Teresa’s home. Day.

Props:

Table (sink/vanity), chair (toilet seat), pregnancy test, smart phone, cocktail glass filled to the brim
