

MEDIA ALERT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 12, 2020

Media Contact:

Araceli Velasco

Phone: (213) 718-0732

Email address: avelasco@nhmc.org

*LATINOS FOR BLACK LIVES MATTER: NHMC TO HOLD
PROTEST IN WHITTIER, CA*

-
- WHAT: The National Hispanic Media Coalition (NHMC) and allies will be holding a peaceful protest in solidarity of the Black Lives Matter movement.
- WHEN: Saturday, June 13, 2020 at 12:00 p.m
- WHO: Brenda Victoria Castillo, President & CEO, NHMC
Henry Bouchot, Whittier City Council Member
Students from Cal State L.A. Black Student Union
Students from Whittier College Indigenous Peoples & Nation's Club
Students from Cal State Northridge
Danielle King, L.A. Urban League Young Professionals
Afro-Latino Activists, Yasmine Campbell, Henry Kelly, Franceli Chapman
- WHERE: Whittier Police Department
13200 East, Penn St,
Whittier, CA 90602
- WHY: NHMC is a 34- year old civil rights nonprofit organization, based in Whittier, CA with an office in Washington, DC that has advocated for the Latinx and other marginalized communities in media advocacy, telecommunications policy, and combating hate. NHMC works to advance people of color through educational and workforce development programs, training and mentorship opportunities, demonstrations and activism, and more. NHMC stands with Black Lives Matter and the Black Community. It is our mission to end systemic oppression against Black and Brown people, and put an end to hate and racism.

###

National Hispanic Media Coalition | communications@nhmc.org | www.nhmc.org

Connect with us

